

Remembering what life was like as an addict

Excuses I made to make myself feel better

Convincing myself life wasn't too bad, when I know differently

Opiates - I was feeding into my body

Very little that I was doing with my life

Everything - that's what this programme means to me

Reliving my life to make a change

Yes! I can do this, I will be clean and sober